“Ballot issues referred by the general assembly or any political subdivision are listed by letter, and ballot issues initiated by the people are listed numerically. A ballot issue listed as an “amendment” proposes a change to the Colorado constitution, and a ballot issue listed as a “proposition” proposes a change to the Colorado Revised Statutes. A “yes” vote on any ballot issue is a vote in favor of changing current law or existing circumstances, and a “no” vote on any ballot issue is a vote against changing current law or existing circumstances.”

PLEASE BRING YOUR I.D. AND PRE-PRINTED SIGNATURE CARD WITH YOU WHEN YOU COME TO VOTE!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. When must my voted mail-in ballot be returned?

A. Mail-in ballots must be RECEIVED at the Adams County Elections Office or Designated Drop-off/Service Center location by 7pm on Election Day in order for your vote(s) to be counted. Ballots received after 7pm on Election Day will not be counted.

Q. Where can I drop-off my mail-in ballot?

A. There are fifteen drop-off locations, listed below, conveniently located around the county.

Q. How can I tell if I am registered to vote or if my voted mail-in ballot has been received?

A. To verify your mail-in ballot was received by the Elections Office, visit the website at www.govotecolorado.com and click on "Verify Your Voter Information" link.

Q. What do I do if I make a mistake, damage or lose my ballot?

A. You may request a Replacement Ballot by visiting one of the conveniently located Service Centers listed below.

Q. Who are the eligible Write-in Candidates?

A. Visit www.adamscountyelections.org for the list.

Q. I've heard that mail-in ballots are only counted if there are close races. Is that true?

A. No. All ballots, both polling place and mail-in, are counted in the same manner. All valid mail-in ballots are counted in every election in Colorado, regardless of the outcome or closeness of any race.

Q. Are ADA Accessible voting machines available?

A. ADA Accessible voting machines are available during Early Voting and on Election Day. For more information, please contact the Adams County Elections Office at 303-920-7850.
